

Free School Meals (FSM) in Wales

on 20 May 2020

Welsh local authorities are supporting an increasing number of pupils who are eligible for FSM, while at the same time adapting their arrangements to continue provision during the COVID-19 pandemic

Over 90,000 pupils provided with FSM

37% more pupils receiving FSM than on 14 January 2020

Around 5,000 pupils have become eligible since the start of lockdown

1% collected from the educational setting

71% received direct payments

14% received via home delivery

14% received vouchers

